Have you been baptized as a believer in Christ?

This is a command of Jesus, and as such, should be taken seriously. If you have not been baptized as a believer, please talk with Pastor Kevin soon. We will observe this ordinance at our Annual Picnic, Sunday, July 19, when we head out to Collinwood Park in Cokato.

AWANA is in need of volunteers for our upcoming season. We need volunteers now to prepare before the start. Positions needed are secretaries (2), game leader, boy T & T helper, and other helpers. Please see Kyle or Jason & Kate Benson.

Ladies' breakfast - The next ladies' breakfast will be on Saturday, June 20 at 8:30 a.m. at Perkins in Buffalo.

Adult Sunday School - Starting June 7th and taught by Jim O'Dell. A four-session course that shows how the central doctrines of the Christian faith arise from God's covenantal self-revelation in Scripture and hold together in Jesus Christ.

Building on earlier courses in biblical and covenant theology, this class will trace the doctrinal significance of the Covenant of Works, the fall of Adam, the Covenant of Grace, the person and work of Christ, salvation, the church, and the hope of glory. The course is designed to show that Reformed theology is not a collection of isolated doctrines, but a unified and Christ-centered system rooted in the covenantal structure of Scripture.

Psalm 54.1-7

King David, our psalmist, knew his share of “weasels” during his life. They sought his lie, or as we read here, told others who could do him harm. But David declares, “But God is my helper. The Lord is the one who keeps me alive!”

God is the same today as then. You can call out to Him and know that He is your helper, the one who keeps you alive forevermore.
